23 Rosegreen Ave, Butler

OWNER SAYS SELL!!!

Large sized home on super sized block in the heart of Butler

Land size is over 500m²

Built in 2009 this homes has 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, double garage, lounge area, open plan living and dining plus a games area.

Both bathrooms have been recently renovated

The sellers have been working tirelessly to prepare the house for sale and have arranged fresh paint to the walls and new paving and landscaping to portions of the rear.

The current owners have lived here and have made this home their sanctuary by adding plantation blinds to the dining and kitchen area.

There is also a sand pit at the rear which is perfect for kids and creates a lovely playground feel.

I find that the beauty of this home is in the potential it offers and the freedom it gives you as the buyer to add your personal touches to the home.

The reason I say this is because the rear part of the block is currently unused, sandy and provides an opportunity for future outdoor works to be carried out by the winning purchaser which may include a pool, a shed, decking or cubby house. There is just so much backyard space the options are truly endless.
